

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 15, 2009

Patrick Johnson
Communications Director
Patrick.Johnson9@gmail.com
407- 460-4813

NFL HALL-OF-FAMER WILL SPEAK TO FLAG FOOTBALL CLUB
Prime Time will be the first speaker in a lecture series.

TAMPA, FLA.- Deion Sanders, former NFL superstar, will speak with the Flag Football Club at the University of South Florida, Tampa campus on September 19, 2009 at the Fowler Fields at 6pm. The event will note the first of five lecture series held through the organization.

Sanders will speak with students about teamwork, respect, discipline and how to succeed as a team. "I love speaking to sport organizations. Regardless if its football or another sport I feel like it is a way I can directly give back, especially since sports have been embedded in my life," Sanders said.

The next speaker schedule will be Buccaneers coach Raheem Morris. "Our initial idea was far-fetched. We used our resources and made it become a reality. It shows how resourceful college students can be. This series will be exciting for everyone in attendance," Patrick Johnson, president, said. This event will be open to all USF students with a valid student I.D.

About the Flag Football Club at USF

Patrick Johnson created the Flag Football Club at USF in spring 2009. Since its origination the club has received national rankings throughout collegiate flag football.

###

For more information contact Patrick Johnson at 407-460-4813 or email
Patrick.Johnson9@gmail.com

